

3/2023 Cork Hole Experimental Lighted Buoys

Trinity House Notice to Mariners, 03/02/2023

EAST COAST OF ENGLAND

CORK HOLE

EXPERIMENTAL LIGHTED BUOYS

Amendment:

On or about the 7th February 2023, two experimental lighted buoys are to be temporarily established for approximately 8 weeks, as follows: -

Position:

Latitude 51° 53.500'N., Longitude 001° 24.600'E

Characteristics:

Yellow buoy: yellow 'x' topmark: Fl (5) Y 20s

Position:

Latitude 51° 54.000'N., Longitude 001° 25.900'E

Characteristics:

Red buoy with red can shaped structure: red can topmark: Fl R 2.5s

Mariners are advised that the lighted buoys have no navigational significance.

Further notice will be given when the buoys are removed.

By Order,
Commander N. Hare,
Director of Navigational Requirements.

Trinity House,
Tower Hill,
London,
EC3N 4DH
11th February,
2022.

Not for navigation purposes